

The Common European Framework of Reference for Languages (CEFR) is a global grading system for international language assessments. It helps determine your level of proficiency depending on your TOEIC score.

CEFR: C2 TOEIC: 990	Can understand with ease virtually everything heard or read. Can summarise information from different spoken and written sources, reconstructing arguments and accounts in a coherent presentation.
CEFR: C1 TOEIC: 945+	Can understand a wide range of demanding, longer texts, and recognise implicit meaning. Can express him/herself fluently and spontaneously without much obvious searching for expressions. Can use language flexibly and effectively for social, academic and professional purposes.
CEFR: B2 TOEIC: 785+	Can understand the main ideas of complex text on both concrete and abstract topics, including technical discussions in his/her field of specialisation. Can interact with a degree of fluency and spontaneity that makes regular interaction with native speakers quite possible without strain for either party.
CEFR: B1 TOEIC: 550+	Can understand the main points of clear standard input on familiar matters regularly encountered in work, school, leisure, etc. Can deal with most situations likely to arise whilst travelling in an area where the language is spoken. Can produce simple connected text on topics which are familiar or of personal interest.
CEFR: A2 TOEIC: 225+	Can understand sentences and frequently used expressions related to areas of most immediate relevance (e.g. very basic personal and family information, shopping, local geography, employment). Can communicate in simple and routine tasks requiring a simple and direct exchange of information on familiar and routine matters.
CEFR: A1 TOEIC: 120+	Can understand and use familiar everyday expressions and very basic phrases aimed at the satisfaction of needs of a concrete type. Can introduce him/herself and others and can ask and answer questions about personal details such as where he/she lives, people he/she knows and things he/she has.

Lexile also helps measure and improve your English proficiency.

A student has a Lexile score that describes reading ability, at the same time, a book has a Lexile measure that describes its reading level.

When they match, it means that the text's reading demand is within the ability of the reader.

Lexile measures are the most widely used reading measures in the world.
